Collection ALTAGAMMA MATERIC

Description

ALTAGAMMA MATERIC modern living is a collection of wallcoverings in vinyl on a non-woven backing that interprets the universal theme of matter applied to wall surfaces. The collection elaborates the value of elements, whether powerful like stone, warm like wood, flexible like reed, or delicate and enveloping like leather, transforming simple material surfaces into expressive force with a decorative imprint. The inspiration comes from the skilled craftsmanship of cutting stone into geometric patterns, weaving rattan canes, whitewashed wood sapwood, and tanned and quilted leather. These effects are then translated into wallcoverings suitable for enhancing and enriching both classic and contemporary settings.
